

Central State University Cincinnati "STAR" Alumni Chapter

- presents -

Star Chapter Mentor Program for Central State University Art & Graphic Design Students

MENTOR REGISTRATION

(Fill out "Part 2" only)

This partnership between Procter & Gamble and the Central State University, Cincinnati Alumni Chapter is an initiative to create opportunities for Central State University to become a feeder school into Procter & Gamble's Design function.

This initiative will provide valuable real world working experience for co-ops with potential to become full-time hires and transition into the University of Cincinnati's Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning (DAAP) Graduate Program for those students interested in furthering their education.

LOOKING FOR:

- 20-25 Mentors (Each Mentor will have a minimum of 2 Mentees)
- Commitment time. The duration of the students matriculation with CSU. Students start the program at varying years
- Mentors will receive initial and ongoing training of the P&G Way.
- Meet at least once a month for a minimum of an hour with mentee

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Please visit our "Contact Us" webpage, fill out and submit our contact form. The Central State University Cincinnati STAR Alumni Chapter will follow up with you as soon as possible.